

Bachman Summer Day Camp for Kids

Where can you send your kids for exciting summer activities - on the mountain? Bachman Community Center's special-interest day camps offer lots of fun and games for elementary school students. (Shhh! Don't tell them it's educational too!)

Spaces fill up quickly, so sign up now! AM camp 9:30-12:30 & PM camp 2:00-5:00

June 8-12: Kids' Crafts - Mardi Leonard (Thrasher) will direct kids in exploring different craft mediums including paper mache, paints, and folk art. And just for fun, she might throw in a little Spanish vocabulary as well. Two sessions available: AM for rising 1st and 2nd graders, and PM for rising 3rd, 4th and 5th graders.

June 15-19: Kids' Cooking I - Join Thrasher's Heidi Griswold and her mom, Sherri Allison to make cool summer treats, learn basic kid-safe kitchen skills, while infusing some kitchen "math." Make your very own cookbook and share fun "food" stories. AM Only. Rising 1st-5th

June 22-26: American Girl Camp - Nolan's Sherri Johnston leads this very popular camp based on the book series. Campers share activities from different eras, like having a tea party just like Felicity (1774), and celebrating a Fiesta like Josefina (1824). AM Only. Rising

July 6-10: Kids' Cooking Camp II - Heidi Griswold. Due to high demand, this second session is now being offered. AM only. Rising 1st-5th graders

July 13-17: River City Ceramics Camp - Lynnsey Apelhans leads camp in which kids paint ceramic keepsakes. AM Only. Rising 1st-5th graders.

July 20-24: Sports Camps - Nolan's John Shumate. AM camp is outdoor sports camp for rising 1st-5th graders. Kids learn different games and sports in Bachman's big back yard. Playground games as well as team sports will give every child new skills as well as great exercise. PM camp is Beginning Volleyball Camp for rising 5th, 6th and 7th graders only.
